We gratefully appreciate and acknowledge the services of these women who unselfishly contribute their time and effort to insure the welfare of our students.

We have all, faculty and students alike, had the occasion to approach this man and ask some favor of him. Nothing is too minor to credit his personal attention. In the throng of names and faces he always seems to keep things on a personal basis. He has taught us all the meaning of respect and honor. We thank you, Mr. James S. King.

The end of another school year, but for us, the 1969 graduating class, it is the end of an era. We reluctantly relinquish our position. for us and those who will follow this path.
